UGF is coordinated by K.FUND & supported by Ukraine's Ministry of Education and Science

K.FUND is a non-profit charity founded by prominent Ukrainian entrepreneur Vasyl Khmelnytsky.

Launched in 2015 with focus on impact projects in education, innovation, and economic growth, K.FUND is supported by Ukrainian and global partners, and currently is focused on humanitarian and recovery needs.

Examples of K.FUND Projects

Novopecherska School – Ukraine’s leading full cycle (1st to 11th grades) private school; privately owned and managed by an international team of educators since 2014.

prgmx school – no cost training in Entrepreneurship and Programming for high school students across Ukraine since 2020.

European Design Upgrade: Transnational Capacity Building develops Ukraine’s creative industries, supporting talented designers, artists and technologists in collaboration with leading experts from Belgium, Ukraine, and Finland. K.FUND is coordinator of the international consortium funded by Creative Europe.

Kyiv International Economic Forum – the premier economic forum for Central & Eastern Europe, gathering over 2 500 participants annually, including heads of state, prominent business leaders and global visionaries.

Supervisory Board

Charles K. Whitehead – Myron C. Taylor Alumni Professor of Business Law at Cornell Law School and the Founding Director of the Law, Technology and Entrepreneurship program at Cornell Tech, JD

Vasyl Khmelnytsky – founder of UFuture holding, UNIT.City innovation park and K.FUND

Michael Nobel – Chairman of the Nobel Sustainable Trust Foundation, PhD

Erik Reinert – Honorary Professor at the UCL Institute for Innovation and Public Purpose (IIPP), PhD, MBA
